Adams, Stepner, Woltermann & Dusing, PLLC Announces that Scott M. Guenther Will be Firm's Managing Partner

COVINGTON, KY – Adams, Stepner, Woltermann & Dusing, PLLC is pleased to announce that Scott M. Guenther has been elected Managing Partner beginning January 1, 2012. Guenther succeeds James G. Woltermann, who has served in a leadership capacity for over a decade. "Under Jim's leadership the firm has seen steady client growth and solid business practices have been established," says Guenther.

"We have historically been known as a "firm of choice" by our clients based solely on the level of knowledge that we have with the law and our attention to clients evolving needs. Now, we are taking the momentum established by our Partners during these tough economic times and are utilizing that knowledge and experience to grow our firm, to have greater impact when serving the needs in the community and to serve our clients needs, both new and existing, in this ever-changing and sometimes complicated business environment."

As Managing Partner, Guenther will oversee the day-to-day operations of the firm and will be responsible for establishing priorities and direction of the firm. Guenther will serve a two-year term. Woltermann, whose continued participation is an important component to the firm's success, will continue to play an integral role in the management of the firm.

Guenther will continue to practice in the areas of general business litigation, workers' compensation, civil litigation, personal injury litigation and employment law. Admitted to practice law in Kentucky in 1993, he is a member of the Northern Kentucky Bar Association and the Kentucky Bar Association. Guenther received his B.A. and his J.D. from the University of Kentucky.
